CLASSES

CLASS HISTORY

When the doors of Riverside were opened on September 3, 1946, twenty-two green "Frosh" came sneaking through in hopes that they would not be seen by the upper classmen, especially sophomores. After weeks of their whispering the fearful day came for us to be let in on the secrets. We were going to be initiated. It wasn't as bad as anticipated, but we were glad it was over and were waiting for the next year when we could get revenge.

With much thought we chose our class officers as follows: President, Albert Clark; Vice President, Bob Polegay; Secretary, Ethel Pickard; Treasurer, Jeanetta Kirkpatrick; and Adviser, Miss Petron.

Seven of our girls were invited into the Pep Club. They are Carol Steele, Nancy Moser, Joan Snyder, Betty Conroy, Myra Scott, Ethel Pickard, and Marilyn Reames.

Our candidate, Carol Steele, was chosen queen for the F.F.A. Carnival.

Albert Clark, Bob Polegay, and Don Durland became "R" Club members.

The following year, sixteen of our group returned to take up the rank of sophomores.

Our officers for this year included President, Nancy Moser; Vice President, Carol Steele; Secretary-Treasurer, Beverly Pratt; Student Council Representative, Albert Clark; and Adviser, Mr. Westergard.

Janet Walker, Darlene McRae, Beverly Pratt, and Edna Selleck were invited into the Pep Club.

Eight of our girls were majorettes. They were Carol Steele, Janet Walker, Ethel Pickard, Marilyn Reames, Myra Scott, Darlene McRae, Beverly Pratt, and Jeanne Reid.

Boys receiving letters for sports were Albert Clark, Bob Polegay, and Don Durland.

The first event of our junior year was the election of officers. They are as follows: President, Darlene McRae; Vice President, Marilyn Reames; Secretary-Treasurer, Myra Scott; Student Council Representative, Bob Polegay; and Adviser Mrs. Nichols.

Carol Steele Vanderholm, who was our class president moved away. Darlene McRae and Myra Scott quit school leaving their offices to Marilyn Reames and Celesta Beavers respectively. Gene Stevenson is the only new student.

Beverly Pratt held the office of treasurer in the Student Body.

Bob Polegay was very outstanding in sports.

All the boys and girls are members of the F.F.A. and F.H.A., respectively.

Jeanetta Kirkpatrick, Celesta Beavers, and Jeanne Reid were asked to join the Pep Club. All the Junior girls are now members of the club.

Beverly Pratt was chosen class queen candidate for the F.F.A. Carnival.

Those appearing in the Senior play were Janet Walker, Betty Conroy, Myra Scott, and Beverly Pratt.

The theme for the Prom was "Blue Hawaii". Ruth Warriner was selected as queen.

We have finally reached the beginning of our Senior year. Class officers elected were President, Marilyn Reames; Vice President, Jeanne Reid; Secretary, Edith Grimes; Treasurer, Ethel Pickard; and Student Council Representative, Betty Conroy. Our adviser is Mr. Scott Ward.

Edith Grimes is a new member to the class.

Jeanetta Kirkpatrick was the senior candidate and queen of the F.F.A. Carnival.

All class members held parts in the Senior play.

CLASS PROPHECY

We leave from the new "Round the World In A Day" airport at 12 noon, May 31, 1962. As we board our 50 passenger Strataliner, we meet our stewardess, Marilyn Reames. She mentions several famous people who graduated from a certain Riverside High School in 1950 who are aboard. They are going to a class reunion. And just think they are all on this plane.

That large athletic figure in the front seat is George Banks, who is now a famous radio, screen, and television star. He has just finished a tour of the world. His two films, "What Did I Do To Deserve This?", and "Everyone Knows" have brought him loads of dollars—a couple or three.

The person talking to him is Lloyd James, a famous banker. He started the First Federal Bank of the World. He now owns the Pacific Steel Inc. which has offices in Hongkong, London and Shangri-La!

The seats directly behind them are occupied by Betty Conroy and Beverly Pratt. Bev is the president for the Bill Sims Shoestring Co. She makes the living while her husband Bill, stays home and takes care of their twin daughters.

Betty Conroy is really having a grand time, it seems. She has become a Jolly Joe and peddles her little red wagon around the world in two years. She had quite a few difficulties crossing the ocean. At least she got to try out her new pen that writes under water.

Across the aisle talking excitedly are Ethel Pickard and Jeanetta Kirkpatrick. Ethel now is working in Hollywood drawing backdrops for all the famous movies. She has also completed several famous paintings. The most famous, "The Longest Smile is the Last Smile at Home!"

Jeanetta Kirkpatrick has become Jeanetta Taylor and is a hard-boiled executive for the President of The Bubble Gum of the World Co. She orders the bubbles from a widely known bubble factory.

Also on the plane, in fact in the last seat, are Celesta and Gene Stevenson Smith. Gene is the well-known Senator from Kansas. Celesta has her hands full with the children, twins, a boy and a girl who have a strong desire to be in politics. They both want to be President of the U. S. someday.

It seems I know the girl sitting across the aisle from me. As she sweetly smiles I recognize her as Jeanne Reid the famous opera singer. She now has a singing engagement at the Metropolitan in a lovely opera called "Pappa's Flown the Coop Cause Momma's an Old Hen".

She speaks to another red-haired girl, Edith Ewing Grimes, who has taken her job as Senior play manager seriously. She is producing a movie called "You Can't Take It With You!" The film co-stars her daughter Linda Lee.

Frank Gunderson, who occupies the seat next to Jeanne, now is manager for the Emporierm Hotel in Utopia. He has been on a tour buying dancing girls for his floor show.

We step off the plane at Spokane and sigh happily, my! What a grand trip!

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of 1950, being of sound and disposing mind (if you had our minds you'd dispose of them, too) and memory, do hereby publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

First of all, our ability to get into trouble goes to the incoming sophomores with the hopes that they will use it as an example and mend their ways.

Our intelligence we leave to the faculty in order to make them realize that these past years have been no picnic.

Our carved-up desks we leave to the incoming freshmen with the hopes that they will gain a knowledge of history.

Our cluttered lockers we leave to our talented janitor, Harry Blake. May he never run out of material for starting fires!

Our sweet, easy-going dispositions go to the incoming juniors so they'll forever stay young and sweet.

The memory of our tinkling laughter, our dancing footsteps, and our flunking grades we leave to the school.

To the incoming seniors we leave our ability to be caught in silly predicaments by Mr. Crowley.

The girls leave Mr. Crowley to his wife. All we want is the memory of his loving (?) smile.

The boys leave their big feet to Mrs. Ravsten.

To Mr. Westergard we leave our boldness with the other teachers.

To Miss Hoff we leave all the tangled typewriter ribbons we left under the radiator.

Edith Grimes leaves her gift of gab to the juniors—there's enough to go around. Her week-ends in Spokane she leaves to anyone lucky enough to get them.

Celesta Beavers leaves her sweetness to Dick Johnson. Kansas—she won't leave.

Lloyd James leaves his meanness to Verle Beck. To Agnes Handegard he leaves his hot rod.

Beverly Pratt wills her sweater to Quentin Ratliff. To Walter Krahn she leaves her job as treasurer of the student body.

Jeanne Reid leaves her hair to Dorothy Hoover. Her scorekeeper's job she leaves to anyone with a brain.

Frank Gunderson leaves his laugh to Mr. Knutson. His diabolical schemes he leaves to Carlos Allen.

Marilyn Reames wills her ornery ways to Bertha Neprud. Her "Speedy" ways she leaves to Melvin Reid.

Betty Conroy leaves her extra weight to Evelyn Liljegren. Her one dimple she leaves to Douglas Arnold.

George Banks leaves his manly physique to Truman Ratliff. His passes ((football and such) he leaves to the shyest member of the freshman class.

Jeanetta Kirkpatrick wills her temper to Lila Thompson. Her job as secretary of the student body she leaves to anyone who is a fast writer.

Ethel Pickard leaves her long fingernails to Doris Van Matre. Her place at Harry's at noon she leaves to June Hilliard.

Gene Stevenson, better known as Kansas, leaves—well, it's about time! All the commas he left out of his English lessons he bestows upon Mr. Knutson.

Last, but not least, we bequeath all the sorrow and joy, laughter and tears, work and play we have had to all those remaining at Riverside.

This, fellow R.H.S.'ers, completes the last will and testament of the senior class of 1950. All complaints may be registered with Mr. Ward, our adviser. He won't do anything about them, either.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The fall of '47 there were 41 freshmen who entered Riverside high school. One of the important high-lights of the year was the freshman initiation which we found a great deal of fun. Of the 41 students, only 25 came back the third year.

We soon went to work and elected class officers They were as follows: President, Roland Cook; Vice-president, Verle Beck; Secretary, Jeanne Dunbar; Treasurer, Quentin Ratliff; Student Council Representative, Walter Krahn. Mrs. Ann Ravsten was class adviser.

The four juniors who helped with the senior play were Dolores Pratt, Gilbert Bronkhorst, Howard Evans, Quentin Ratliff.

The sale of hot dogs helped greatly toward the expenses of the junior prom. The theme chosen was "In An Old Dutch Garden." Decorations matched the theme.

Dolores Pratt was the only junior who worked in the office.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September 21, 1949, approximately 27 wide-eyed freshmen gathered in the study hall to receive their initiation consequences. On September 22, one could have seen anything from a cowgirl on a broomstick to boys in bathing costumes in the halls of old R.H.S. Several girls were dressed in pajamas (usually fathers) and carried dolls. All were requested to carry upper classmen's books and shine their shoes. On September 23 bewildered freshmen walked about from room to room with straight hair, red faces, and an occasional stiff leg.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

Riverside started their gridiron season this fall with a nucleus of but six lettermen, and in spite of this handicap played remarkably good football the entire season. We won two games, tied one and lost four. Those games lost were thrillers all the way, as they were jam packed with action. Minor injuries kept two lettermen on the sidelines most of the season and in some instances meant the difference between winning and losing. As we only had two seniors on our ball team, next year's squad should undoubtedly be one of the strongest in the circuit. The boys receiving letters were: George Banks (Captain), Lloyd James, Jim VanMatre, Verle Beck, Gordon Foster, Art McGinnis, Gilbert Bronkhorst, Howard Evans, Douglas Arnold, Ray Arnold, Bob Bruihl, Roland Cook, Ray Alger, Bob Wegeleben, Ray Toner, Jim Reynolds, and Manager, Melvin Reid.

The final score found all Deer Park rooters fairly well subdued as the scoreboard read Riverside 54—Deer Park 29. High scoring honors went to George Banks with 170 points. Jim Van Matre (Captain) was second with 137. The lettermen are as follows: Banks, Bruihl, Bronkhorst, Krahn, Van Matre, Ratliff, Reynolds, Beck, Arnold, and Evans.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council is the main self-governing body of our school. All student business passes through the council. Regulations and by-laws that are for the betterment of the school, teachers, and students are originated by representatives of the classes and council officers. This year, through the efforts and cooperation of the students and faculty members, we have paid the large school debt.

A new Constitution was written and approved by members of the council. A few new rules are going to take effect this year. Most of the Constitution will go into effect the beginning of next school year.

Officers are as follows: President, Gene Stevenson; vice president, Roland Cook; secretary, Jeanetta Kirkpatrick; treasurer, Beverly Pratt. Others in the student council are Marilyn Reames, Betty Conroy, Gil Bronkhorst, Doris Van Matre, Dale Beck, Delma Reasor, and Walter Krahn. The seventh and eighth each have two representatives.
